YOUTH RED CROSS (YRC)

Youth represents a substantial part of the membership of Red Cross for its humanitarian commitment. Young volunteers can make a significant contribution to meet the needs of the most vulnerable people within their local communities through Red Cross youth programme. This has been designed to involve young people as much as possible in the movement not only as workers and also as beneficiaries, but as partners in management

Principles of YRC

- Health
- Service
- Friendship

Motto

The motto of Youth Red Cross (YRC) is "to serve".

Policy of YRC

- Conducting rallies, camps, orientation programmes to students about YRC, social and health awareness programmes.
- Encourage the students to extend their humanitarian services to the society.
- Develop leadership quality among the students.
- Inculcate in the youth of our country.
- Offer first aid training to all the YRC volunteers.
- Promote voluntary blood donation among the youth.
- Counsel the students regarding the various preventives for their proper health and importance of blood donation.

- Foster better friendly relationship without any discrimination.
- Persuade the cluster of people to service through nurturing and edification.
